Boris Wild

BIOGRAPHY

Boris Wild is one of the most renowned French magicians in the world. He is an international performer, author, creator and lecturer.

His performances have drawn thousands of spectators all over the world: Paris, London, New York, Las Vegas, Sydney, Buenos Aires, Cape Town, Seoul, Tokyo...

His creativity and original approach to magic allow him to perform in the most prestigious venues such as the world-famous Magic Castle in Hollywood where he has already performed several hundred shows. Boris has even been chosen as the official magician of the World Economic Forum Gala, which hosts the most influential people on the planet.

Boris Wild is a Grand Prix Winner at the FFM French Championship of Magic, a Monte Carlo Magic Stars Award Winner and a FISM Winner at the World Championship of Magic.

He has appeared on many international TV shows such as Penn & Teller: Fool Us (yes, he fooled Penn & Teller!), Le Plus Grand Cabaret du Monde (five appearances), Magic Show au Lido, Champions of Magic (USA), International Close-up Show (China), Magic Castle (Japan)...

He has also appeared in the photo exhibitions The World's Greatest Magicians in Stockholm, The Legends of Magic in Québec, and on the cover of international magazines such as The Linking Ring, Magicseen, VANISH and GENII Magazine.

He has been the Guest of Honor at the FFFF Convention, the most prestigious gathering of close-up magicians in the world, and the Chairman of the Close-up Jury at the FISM World Championships of Magic in Beijing.

He is the recipient of the Bronze Medal of Cultural Influence from La Renaissance Française and has been awarded the Robert-Houdin Bronze and Silver Medals by the Fédération Française des Artistes Prestidigitateurs for his representation of French magic abroad.
